

Brexit

We provide comprehensive analysis of the legal consequences of Brexit, to help businesses understand the issues and determine the best way to address them.

Brexit

The two year period in which the UK and the EU will negotiate the UK's terms of withdrawal from the EU remains unchanged and moves on relentlessly.

If no agreement on the arrangements for the UK's withdrawal is reached, Brexit will occur on 29 March 2019 unless all Member States unanimously agree otherwise.

Here you will find all the latest information and guidance to navigate you through the legal implications of Brexit for the next few years.

Have you seen an increased interest in Financial Institutions relocating to your country?

Outside of regulatory approval, what is the most challenging aspect of setting up a business in your country?

In what ways is your country adapting to the potential increase in business?

Do you think it will be a hard or soft Brexit?

Featured links

Recent Developments

How to provide financial services in key European jurisdictions

Breaking down Brexit: a blog

Podcasts

Timeline

European Council meeting to discuss whether “sufficient progress” has been made on the three priority issues

European Parliament adopts resolution on withdrawal agreement

European Parliament adopts resolution on its key principles and conditions for approval of the UK’s withdrawal agreement.

House of Lords Committee stage

The UK’s exit from the European Union does, however, raise crucial issues as to the potential legal consequences and impact on business activities in the UK.

This document (and any information accessed through links in this document) is provided for information purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. Professional legal advice should be obtained before taking or refraining from any action as a result of the contents of this document.

© Simmons & Simmons LLP 2017. All rights reserved. Registered in England & Wales Registered Number OC352713

ellexica Limited, CityPoint, One Ropemaker Street, London EC2Y 9SS T: +44 20 7628 2020