

The Future of the Asset Management Industry - Dublin seminar

Simmons & Simmons recently launched a major research study in collaboration with Bloomberg, "Asset Manager Outlook to 2025" to help you develop strategies and solutions to the challenges and opportunities that we now see lying ahead.

Join us as we reveal the findings and implications for the industry with industry leaders, members of our team and the authors of the report.

External speakers include:

- Charles Farquharson - Chief Executive Officer Insight Europe
- Eve Finn - Managing Director LGIM Ireland
